

James "Jim" Paul Kastli, 82, of Fairbank, passed away on Friday, April 8, 2022. He was born July 28, 1939, in Oelwein, Iowa, which he joked was 100 years too late and 1,000 miles too far east as he would have been a cowboy. He was the fourth child born to Ernest and Dorothy (Warnke) Kastli.

He was united in marriage to Barbara Ann Boyle on March 23, 1968, in Waterloo. Jim spent his working years with Local 125 as a plumber and pipefitter, which he retired from in 2009.

He enjoyed watching NASCAR races, especially his favorite driver, Bill Elliott, and the RFD TV channel. Jim enjoyed hunting trips to Wyoming and Montana and loved the mountains. He was able to take two trips to Wyoming and Colorado with his grandchildren in his later years to experience them again.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents; parents; three brothers, Don, Alvin, and Georgie Kastli; two sisters, Ila Phares and Violet Schmitz; and his wife Barbara.

James is survived by his daughter, Kelly (William) Pond of Waukee, and son, Sean (Jennifer) Kastli of West Des Moines, and two grandchildren, Addyson and Griffin, and a brother, Tom Kastli of Waterloo.

Visitation: 4-7?p.m. Tuesday, April 12, at Woods Funeral Home, Fairbank.

Funeral Mass will be 10:30?a.m. Wednesday, April 13, at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, Fairbank, with inurnment in Immaculate Conception Cemetery.

Memorials may be directed to the family for later designation. Cards and memorials may be sent to Kelly Pond, 1193 SE Williams Court, Waukee, IA 50263.
